

MiniRome motor

The MiniRome is a Vigor Bo30, a miniaturized version of the Rome motor (Vigor Mo3) used in many Didel projects for several years.

The problem of the BO30 is you have no hole to fix it, and you need to be good in micromechanics to adapt a wheel. Didel has invested in molds to get an holder and two wheels of different sizes.

